"Never Mind the Weather."

A Hart County Philosopher's
Sensible Views.

Courier-Journal "On Dit."

"Never worry over the crops or anything else. Just go ahead and do the best you can do and everything will turn out all right in the end. That is the theory I go on," said Thomas McCracken of Hart county at the Galt House last night. He is a satisfied man of about sixty years. His pipe is a great comfort to him, and the long thin streams of smoke that originate somewhere between his mustache and his beard take their course in a leisurely fashion that suitably accompanies his philosophy.

"You hear lots of farmers complaining about the weather. They worry over whether it's going to rain or whether it is going to stop raining. What good does it do them? They might as well get in the house when it is raining and do as much work as they can indoors. The newspapers come along with the official predictions, but I never bother about them; I just smoke my pipe and wait. It ain't going to stop raining any sooner because you are fretting around looking at the clouds.

"I used to worry when I was a young fellow, but I had sense enough to see that it wasn't getting me anything, and I quit. Some smart fellow said: 'Never trouble trouble, till trouble troubles you,' and that has been my creed ever since I read it. Maybe I haven't got as much money as some, but I've brought up a big family and every one of them is satisfied with life. I believe in accepting what you have got and being thankful for it. Then everything else that comes your way in the natural course of things will be all the more pleasant.

"I know a fellow who is always worrying about the crops. I told him the other day that he didn't trust his Maker 'round the corner and it made him mad. Now I want to put a plain proposition to you, just as I put it to him. What's the use of worrying about whether the crop is going to be big or little? If it is big, prices will be low; if it is little, prices will be high, so it amounts to the same in the long run. Just do your work and let the rest take care of itself."

The sage of Hart county then filled his pipe with tobacco taken from a well-worn leather pouch, settled down into the folds and puffed in perfect content.

THE DEVIL'S AUCTION.

Charles H. Yale's Everlasting Devil's Auction makes its third visit to Maysville on Wednesday, March 15th, with everything new. The press throughout Iowa and Illinois claims that this edition is the best one yet. The coming will no doubt be hailed with delight by patrons of the Washington Opera-house, as it is one of the few attractions on the road that we look for with pleasure every year. The company is larger than ever and carries a 70-foot carload of scenery.

Backache, "The Blues"

Both Symptoms of Organic Derangement in Women—Thousands of Sufferers Find Relief.

How often do we hear women say: "It seems as though my back would break," or "Don't speak to me. I am all out of sorts?" These significant remarks prove that the system requires attention. Backache and "the blues" are direct symptoms of an inward trouble which will sooner or later declare itself. It may be caused by diseased kidneys or some uterine derangement. Nature requires assistance and at once, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound instantly asserts its curative powers in all those peculiar ailments of women. It has been the standby of intelligent American women for twenty years, and the ablest specialists agree that it is the most universally successful remedy for women's ill-known to medicine.

The following letters from Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Cotrelly are among the many thousands which Mrs. Pinkham has received this year from those whom she has relieved. Surely such testimony is convincing. Mrs. J. G. Holmes, of Larimore, North Dakota, writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I have suffered everything with backache and womb trouble—I felt the trouble run on until my system was in such a condition that I was unable to be about and then it was I commenced to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If I had only known how much suffering I would have saved, I should have taken it months sooner—for a few weeks' treatment made me well and strong. My backache and headaches are all gone and I suffer no pain at my menstrual periods, whereas before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I suffered intense pain."

Mrs. Emma Cotrelly, 109 East 12th Street, New York City, writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I feel it my duty to tell all suffering women of the relief I have found in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I commenced taking the Compound I suffered everything with backache, headache, menstrual and ovarian troubles. I am completely cured and enjoy the best of health, and I owe it all to you."

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unequalled endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. Refuse to buy any substitute.

FREE ADVICE TO WOMEN.

Remember, every woman is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about her symptoms she does not understand. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass., her advice is free and cheerfully given to every ailing woman who asks for it. Her advice and medicine have restored to health more than one hundred thousand women.
